

If you have holiday shopping to do, don't forget to stop by the MSO holiday boutique before the start of the concert and during intermission.

The afternoon will conclude with a visit from Santa, bringing treats for the boys and girls and a traditional carol sing-along for all.